Preface

This YTA Policy Manual contains all of the policies of the Association.

This manual was initiated in 2014. The policies and regulations that used to be in the document known as the 'YTA Handbook' were the starting point for this version of the manual. The policies and regulations are now all called "Policies" and have been organized into different sections in this manual.

Other materials that were found in the old YTA Handbook were the constitution and bylaws of the organization. The constitution was revoked in 2014 (as it overlapped with the Teaching Professions Act which has precedence).

The bylaws continue to exist separate from this manual. However, everything in the policy manual must be consistent with YTA bylaws. If there is a conflict, the content of the bylaws shall prevail. And the Acts governing YTA prevail over the YTA bylaws.

YTA Governing Documents

Teaching Professions Act (Yukon)

The Yukon's Teaching Professions Act, passed in the late 1980's, sets out in legislation the objectives of YTA, and a framework for its structure. This Act defines the Association's powers; outlines possible membership categories and how membership fees will be collected; identifies that bylaws can be created by YTA; and specifies that membership meetings shall be held at least once a year. The Act also put into law the requirement for YTA to develop a Code of Ethics and establish a Discipline Committee.

Education Act (Yukon)

The Education Act defines the roles and responsibilities of all partners involved in the education of Yukon students. The Act includes sections on: territorial administration; students and parents; school operations; Yukon First Nations; French language and separate school rights; school committees, councils and boards; appeals; teachers; finances; and bargaining agent.

Education Labour Relations Act (Yukon)

This act establishes the Yukon Teachers Labour Relations Board and defines a number of things related to collective bargaining. This includes information on how bargaining rights are acquired and terminated; what collective bargaining involves; how disputes are dealt with; how grievances will be adjudicated; and parameters for strikes and lockouts. This Act affirms that YTA is the current bargaining agent for teachers, Education Assistants, Aboriginal Language Teachers, and Teachers On Call.

YTA Bylaws

YTA has Bylaws that further govern how it operates. The Bylaws include sections on the following matters:

- 1) Membership
- 2) Finances
- 3) Meetings
- 4) Executive
- 5) Conflict of Interest
- 6) Indemnification
- 7) Central Council
- 8) Officers & Duties
- 9) Committees & Sub-Associations
- 10) Elections & Voting
- 11) Limitation of Power
- 12) Discipline

The Bylaws can only be amended by the membership at General Meetings by extraordinary resolutions. Such resolutions require 21 days notice to members and at least 75% of members voting at the meeting must approve the resolution.

Policy & Procedures

Much of YTA's business is guided by policies and procedures. The policies cover topics such as: the structure and duties of committees; travel and accommodation rates; financial matters; standing rules for General Meetings; legal services; and other organizational matters. They also include policy statements on broader issues related to teaching, learning environments and societal issues.

Policy-Making in YTA

Most YTA policies are developed by the Executive Committee to assist in the management of the organization. Policies can also be developed and approved by Central Council and by the membership at General Meetings.

The power for the Executive and Central Council to make policies is identified in Section 9 of the Teaching Professions Act:

Subject to and in accordance with the bylaws and any resolution of the annual general meeting of the teachers' association, the Central Council, Executive, and Table Officers shall govern, control, and administer the affairs of the teachers association and shall exercise all rights and powers vested in the teacher.

YTA's bylaws reinforce the investment of powers in the Executive and other bodies. Under the duties and powers of the Executive, it states:

- The Executive shall, subject to the action of the Annual General, or Special General, Meeting of the Association, or a meeting of the Central Council, exercise all the powers of the Association, the direction and supervision of its business, and the conduct of the affairs of the Association.

- The Executive shall attend to the business of the Association between Annual General Meetings, Special General Meetings or meetings of the Central Council.

Under the section outlining the structure and role of the Central Council the bylaws state:

The Central Council may, both at its own discretion, or at the request of the Executive, consider any question affecting the Association, and direct the Executive accordingly.

Role of YTA Members in policy-making

Policies can also be passed as resolutions at the General Meetings of the members (see the Resolutions Policy in this manual for more information). Many of the policies in this manual, particularly those found in the Teaching & Employment, Student and Learning Environment and Societal Issues sections, are from resolutions voted on by the membership.

In the event a member has a concern about a policy passed by the Executive or Central Council, the bylaws include a section called “Limitations of Power” which states:

Any policy matter passed by the Executive or Central Council shall be referred to the membership for approval upon petition of twenty percent of the membership. All action on the referred policy shall cease pending the outcome of the referendum.

Policy Committee

The YTA has a Policy Committee who is charged with making sure this manual is kept up to date, under the direction of the Executive and in consultation with other YTA committees. The Chair of the committee is elected by the membership and sits on the Executive. Other committee members are also members of the association.

m) Committee of the Whole

- i) The meeting may, when considering any item on the agenda, resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole. The procedure is used for two reasons:
 - (1) The topic is sufficiently complex to warrant interim decisions which will become binding only after passage of a final composite resolution recommended to the meeting by the Committee of the Whole, or;

- (2) The matter is a sensitive one and it is the opinion of the meeting that only YTA members and staff should be in attendance.
- (3) Whenever a meeting resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole, observers are requested to leave.
- ii) The procedure is for delegates to move and second that the meeting resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, naming the chairperson of the Committee. After discussion during which the standing rules may be waived, the Committee of the Whole moves to rise, and report to the meeting. A motion is then placed before the meeting, which repeats the words of the report of the committee. Only the motion carried by the meeting in regular session appears in the minutes.

 - i) The point is that there is a deviation from the agenda. It must receive immediate attention and the ruling of the chair is subject to challenge.
- q) Challenge
 - i) If any member is dissatisfied with any ruling of the chair, the ruling may be challenged. A motion to sustain the chair takes precedence over all other business.
 - ii) When a ruling of the chair is challenged by a member, all other business is suspended. The member making the challenge has the right to present argument to the meeting as to why the ruling is in error. The chair has the right to defend the ruling. The vote on the motion to sustain the chair follows immediately without further debate.
- r) Scrutineers
 - i) A slate of candidates for general scrutineers shall be provided for the approval of the AGM at its opening business session.
 - ii) The convention floor should be divided into a number of clearly defined areas.
 - iii) Recounts shall be taken by ballot.
- s) Reports and Resolutions
 - i) It is desirable that the President, Treasurer, and Committee Chairpersons prepare three copies of their annual report to be filed as follows: one copy in the chairperson's personal file, one copy for the secretary of the committee, the third copy for YTA office files.
 - ii) A copy of each annual report is published and available at the AGM.

Harassment Policy

Policy Statement: The Yukon Teachers' Association is committed to providing a workplace in which all persons can expect to be treated with dignity and respect. Harassment shall not be tolerated. This Policy is intended to encourage and enable staff and others to raise serious concerns within YTA rather than seeking resolution outside YTA. All reports of harassment of elected and non-elected YTA staff shall be addressed in a timely manner through a clear and respectful process.

1) Scope of Policy

- a) Harassment is any improper or offensive behavior that, whether physical, verbal, cyber or by innuendo, interferes with an employee's work performance or advancement or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment. Harassment can take many forms, including personal harassment, sexual harassment and abuse of authority. It may be physical or verbal in nature. It may involve one incident or a series of incidents.
 - i) Personal harassment means any unwarranted, offensive behaviour that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome. It includes any comment, conduct, gesture or display that demeans, intimidates or causes embarrassment to another person. Personal harassment includes but is not limited to harassment on the basis of race, religion, creed, colour, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, ethnic or national origin, age, physical or mental handicap or political belief.
 - ii) Sexual harassment means any conduct, comment, gesture or contact of a sexual nature that is likely to cause offense, embarrassment or humiliation to the recipient or that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by the recipient as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment or on any opportunity for training or promotion, or on receipt of a service or benefit provided by the Association.
 - iii) Abuse of authority means an individual's use of power and authority inherent in the position held in a manner which serves no legitimate work purpose and which ought reasonably to be known to be inappropriate. It includes misuses of power, which are intimidating, coercive or demeaning.

The legitimate and proper exercise of the employee's right to supervise or manage (for example) performance reviews, work evaluation and/or disciplinary measures taken for any valid reason does not constitute harassment under this policy.
- b) This policy is intended to protect all non-elected YTA employees. Anyone raising a concern under this policy must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a serious issue. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false shall be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.
- c) This policy does not replace the YTA Code of Ethics for issues between YTA members nor does it provide two avenues for non-elected YTA staff complainants (i.e. non-elected YTA staff may report his/her complaint either through this policy or under the YTA Code of Ethics but may not change process once initiated nor seek redress under the other process if not satisfied.)

- d) The YTA prohibits any form of retaliatory action against an employee who files a complaint of harassment.
- e) A finding in favour of the complainant(s) may result in disciplinary action ranging from, but not confined to: verbal reprimand, referral to the YTA Ethics Committee (if applicable), termination of employment, or, in accordance with YTA Bylaws, make a recommendation to Central Council to remove from office.
