VETERAN'S WEEK AND REMEMBRANCE DAY: If you're looking for ideas for your classroom, Veteran Affairs has a website filled with resources designed for every grade. Check out their page at www.veterans.gc.ca/eng/remembrance/get-involved/remembrance-day/learning-resources

ATTENTION MUSIC TEACHERS: There is still time to register for the Canadian Music Class Challenge as the deadline for submissions is Nov. 24. Each year music teachers must pick one pre-approved Canadian songs and have their class learn a cover version. The goal is to draw attention to the exceptional work of music teachers in this country, to reinforce the importance of music in a well-rounded education, and to have kids learn Canadian music in the classroom. For more details visit their website at <https://www.cbcmusic.ca/musicclass>

DID YOU KNOW? YTA staff member, Pete Steringa, can provide francophone representation through the grievance and disciplinary process.

EA's - HAVE YOU DONE YOUR SURVEY?

The EA sub association sent a one-page survey to ask what you would like to see for professional development. Please complete your survey and email/fax/mail to the YTA office. If you did not receive a survey, you can request one from the Chair, Theresa Voss, at her yesnet email.

THE ALBERTA TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION has web guides, gathered by their library staff, for use by YTA members. The web guides are collections of free online links including teacher links, subject guides, French materials, topic guides, and guides for seasonal celebrations. Visit <http://library.teachers.ab.ca/> No login required.

ED LEAVE DEADLINE IS NOVEMBER 1: The application forms are comprehensive but there is still a bit of time! Forms are on the YTA website, www.yta.yk.ca, under Professional Development.
